OFFICER CLASSIFICATION: MENACING

On 052419, Veronique BELLAMY called the Fort Collins Police Department from the Colorado State University Police Department building to report that she had been threatened by a roommate. BELLAMY said that the roommate had threatened her with a firearm. BELLAMY said she left the residence at 306 Scott Avenue and walked to the Colorado State University Police Department. After an investigation it was determined that BELLAMY's roommate, Cody WOLFE, did in fact menace her with a firearm. WOLFE was booked into the Larimer County Detention Center for Menacing with a Weapon.

Case Status: CF - Charges Filed.

Narrative

J SWALES/maz

On 052419, Fort Collins Police Department was contacted and responded to the Colorado State University Police Department to speak with an informant, Veronique BELLAMY (DOB 062287). I, Officer J. Swales, responded and met with BELLAMY.

BELLAMY told me that on 052419 at approximately 1000 hours her roommate, later identified as Cody WOLFE (DOB 122690), began pounding on her bedroom door. BELLAMY answered the door and WOLFE said, "meeting." BELLAMY believed that WOLFE wanted to have a meeting with her about living in the home. BELLAMY said that she went to the kitchen area to speak with WOLFE and observed a unknown type of firearm, that appeared to be a rifle, sitting on the kitchen counter. BELLAMY told me that WOLFE began to call her names, saying that she hadn't been paying bills, had not been cleaning the residence, and he included several anti-transgender statements that BELLAMY was not able to be specific about. One statement that BELLAMY did say WOLFE said was that he "wished that she would get a dick back and that would make her better."

BELLAMY told me that WOLFE had threatened her with the gun. I asked BELLAMY if WOLFE had pointed the gun at her. She said, "no" but that the gun had been pointed at her direction while it was sitting on the counter. BELLAMY initially told me that WOLFE had picked up the gun and taken it into his bedroom, and then came back out to the kitchen, where they continued to argue. BELLAMY said that at some point, WOLFE told her she was immature. BELLAMY said something to the effect of, "if I'm immature why am I not the one threatening you with a gun?" BELLAMY said WOLFE said, "yes," confirming that he was threatening her with a gun. I continued to asked BELLAMY about what had occurred between she and WOLFE. BELLAMY told me that at some point, WOLFE had said to her that he wanted her to do something. BELLAMY could not remember what that something was, or that he would use this on her. BELLAMY said as WOLFE said this he pointed at the gun. BELLAMY told me that she believed at this time that WOLFE intended to either shoot her, or possibly beat her with the gun.

I responded to 306 Scott Avenue in Fort Collins, Colorado where other officers had already set up containment in order to try to contact Cody WOLFE. I was able to obtain a phone number for WOLFE's girlfriend, Molly BIGGER. A phone call was made and BIGGER and WOLFE both exited the residence without incident. At this time, I spoke with Cody WOLFE, who was not in custody.

I asked WOLFE what had happened between he and BELLAMY. WOLFE told me that BELLAMY is not a good roommate, that she does not pay any bills, and he has to cover for her financially. WOLFE went on to say that BELLAMY keeps strange hours and will come into the residence at 4:00 in the morning by rattling the door and coming in a different door than was previously agreed she would use. WOLFE did tell me that he had gotten a rifle from the basement of the home, he does not know who the owner is. WOLFE told me he brought that rifle up to the kitchen, laid in it on the kitchen counter. WOLFE told me that he told BELLAMY that there is in fact a gun in the house and if she keeps coming in at odd hours like 4:00 in the morning she could possibly get shot. I tried to confirm that WOLFE was just trying to express to BELLAMY that when there is a firearm in the residence, if someone comes in late at night or early in the morning unannounced there is a chance that someone may feel threatened and may use that firearm against them. WOLFE confirmed that he had in fact brought the firearm up to the kitchen to scare BELLAMY into ceasing some of her odd behavior.

Officers obtained a Consent to Search form from Molly BIGGER, who is also a resident in the home and

Narrative

Officer McTighe recovered a Chinese-made Durango SKS semi-automatic rifle. Due to the fact that Cody WOLFE presented a firearm to Veronique BELLAMY, in order to scare her, and the fact that BELLAMY was in fact afraid that she may be shot with this firearm, Cody WOLFE was taken into custody for Menacing with a Weapon. Cody was transported to the Larimer County Detention Center where he was booked for Menacing with a Weapon.

This incident was recorded on my Axon body-worn camera and uploaded to Evidence.com.
