OFFICER CLASSIFICATION: HARASSMENT

On 090219, I was dispatched to a harassment at 506 E Magnolia St. The informant, Veronique BELLAMY, provided text messages from Katherine DOERNER that caused her alarm. BELLAMY said if DOERNER goes to the media it could damage her future employment. The following are the messages sent from BELLAMY to DOERNER:

DOERNER: I have proof that you committed a class 1 misdemeanor while attempting to obtain public office under a false academic record. We can do this all the easy way, or the hard way. Your choice, but you have 24 hours to tell me of your plans to pay before I go to the police, the media, AND the courts. It's up to you.

BELLAMY : Kat, I'm saddened that it's come to this. My intention has always been to make you whole. However, as I told you I'm not currently employed but I am working to fix that and get you paid ASAP.

DOERNER: I'm not. Your lack of response up this point says otherwise. Lying and evasion are disrespectful and show that you have never truly respected me, my kindness, or my household. Provide me with a plan in 24 hours or I handle all of it through the legal system. Your choice. You've given me no reason to trust your word.

BELLAMY: Other than the fact that I hadn't lied to you at all.

DOERNER: Plan. 24 hours. End of Conversation, until you provide me with one.

I attempted to contact DOERNER by phone but she did not answer her phone. Probable cause does not exist at

Narrative*J HAFERMAN

On 090319, I spoke to Katherine DOERNER by phone. She admitted to sending text messages to Veronique BELLAMY on the morning of 090219. She said she has been upset with BELLAMY for not paying her $600 dollars for her animal vet bills. When I asked DOERNER if she could see how her statement of if BELLAMY does not pay her she will go to the police, media, and the courts, could be perceived as a threat, and she said yes. BELLAMY said she should have picked another way expressing her frustration and knew what she did was wrong. I explained to her DOERNER would like her charged for harassment. She advised she would come to the police department to receive and sign her summons. Officer Chenoweth provided DOERNER the summons and she signed it.

DOERNER was cited into municipal court for Harassment - Harassing Text Message. Nothing further at this time.

Case Status: Closed - Charges Filed.

Narrative

J Chenoweth

On 9/3/19 at approximately 14:30 hours Officer Haferman asked if I could assist in issuing a citation to Katherine DOERNER, who was in the FCPD lobby. I met with DOERNER briefly, who stated Officer Haferman had already explained the specifics of the citation. I issued her the citation, noting her court date, and providing her with her copy of the citation.
