On 052419, I was on duty, wearing a full FCPS (Fort Collins Police Services), riding with Officer Swales as his FTO (Field Training Officer) in a fully marked FCPS patrol vehicle, and equipped with functioning MAV (Mobile Audio Video) camera system, when we responded to CSUPD (Colorado State University Police Department) on a report of a weapons call.

It was reported to FCPS Dispatch, that the victim, later identified as Veronique BELLAMY, had been threaten with a firearm by her roommate, later identified as Cody WOLFE.

On our arrival, Officer Swales spoke with BELLAMY, while I listened in and communicated with other FCPS officers starting a perimeter near the incident location, BELLAMY and WOLFE's residence, located at 306 Scott Avenue. After BELLAMY identified WOLFE, I looked him up in law enforcement databases and then showed BELLAMY a digital photograph of Cody WOLFE (122690), which BELLAMY confirmed to be the suspect.

Based on the early statements of BELLAMY telling Officer Swales she was threatened with a firearm by WOLFE, I advised FCPS officers near the Scott Avenue address there would be felony menacing charges. Officer Swales continued speaking with BELLAMY, and after several clarifying questions, it became unclear if WOLFE had actually threatened BELLAMY or if she was threatened by the physical presence of the firearm.

After a period of time, I explained to BELLAMY, we (officers) were having trouble understanding the entire incident and asked her to re-tell her statement of events. See Officer Swales report for further information.

BELLAMY ultimately advised officers, WOLFE had told her to come out of her room for a meeting. When BELLAMY met with WOLFE in the kitchen, he had a rifle laying on the stove/countertop. WOLFE then told BELLAMY if she didn't do something (unknown what), he would do something with the firearm to her. At the same time, BELLAMY reported WOLFE was pointing at the firearm, causing her to have fear for her life, believing WOLFE may shoot her.

BELLAMY then advised WOLFE removed the firearm from the kitchen and put it away, in his bedroom. WOLFE then returned and yelled at her about not paying bills in the house. BELLAMY told me she was current on all bills but the Internet. She was not current on the Internet bill because the Internet was currently turned off.

When BELLAMY thought it would be safe to leave, she left and ended up at CSUPD seeking police assistance.

After Officer Swales was done speaking with BELLAMY, we responded to the area of 306 Scott Avenue and met with a contact team. The contact team coordinated WOLFE and his girlfriend, Molly BIGGERS, exiting the house for contact.

I was with Officer Swales, when he contacted WOLFE for a statement. During the interview, I asked WOLFE a clarifying question on what his intent was, bringing the firearm into plain sight while having a conversation with BELLAMY. WOLFE explained he purposefully brought the gun from the basement, and left it out for BELLAMY to see, so as to scare or threaten her (BELLAMY) into being a better behaving roommate. See Officer Swales report for further information.

After Officer Swales placed WOLFE under arrest, I took all property WOLFE wanted to leave at the residence with BIGGERS.

No further involvement.

End of report.
